

Pam & Jason Ruhoff February 14, 2000

Mr. & Mrs. Ruhoff on February 14, 2000.

How did you meet?

We met through mutual friends at a bar. Not real romantic, but true. Pam hid behind me from someone else in the bar. We introduced ourselves. She said "Hi. I'm Pam", I said "Hi. My name is Bill."

Who proposed and how?

Jason asked Pam. Twice the same day before she answered.

How long were you engaged?

1 Year.

Date of marriage:

February 14, 2000.

Place of marriage:

In the living room of our house.

How large was the wedding?

We had a small wedding with our witnesses and parents only.

What food was served?

We went to the Blue Heron and ordered off the menu. About 3 months later we had a pig roast / reception.

What was the most memorable moment at your wedding?

Saying I do!

What was your most memorable wedding gift?

The crockpot- as we received 3 of them.

What wedding gift do you use the most today?

18 quart roaster.

Who caught the bouquet and did they have to shove to get it?

There was no bouquet.

Whose relatives, or friends, had the most fun at the reception?

Let's go with, fun was had by all.

Where did you go for a honeymoon?

We have never really had a honeymoon or a just the two of us vacation.

What do you do to keep romance alive in your marriage?

We try to go on dates to remember that we are not only parents, but the fun couple that we started off as.

If you could travel back in time to your wedding day, what advice for maintaining a happy marriage would you give yourselves?

Patience- take time for each other. Remember that you also do not have to be right all the time. They can be right once in a while.

Jason & Pam Today!

Yumi Katsura made a white gold diamond wedding dress... it could be yours for just $8.5 million. In comparison, brides spent, on average, $1,200 for their dresses in 2012.
